Howdy Aggie Moms Clubs!

My name is Samantha Braun and I have the honor of serving as the Chair for the 37th annual Chi Omega Songfest. Songfest is a two night variety song and dance show, and is the largest Greek-sponsored philanthropic event on Texas A&M campus. The mission of Songfest is to unite thousands of Aggies for a common goal of service and enrichment in the community. In 2014, in addition to donating to both our philanthropies, we were honored to also donate $2,000 to individual charities chosen by each participating organization. In total, Songfest was able to donate over $121,000 to several national and local charities. This creates a positive and unifying experience for several Greek and leadership organizations from all over campus.

Tickets

We invite you to attend Songfest on November 20 & 21 at Rudder Auditorium at Texas A&M. All proceeds benefit the 27 philanthropies represented by the student organizations who participate in the show. Tickets may be purchased through the MSC Box Office, or online:

Silent Auction

In addition to the show, we also hold a Silent Auction to raise money. This year, we are opening our silent auction to anyone, from any location, through an online app called Handbid. Songfest's 9th Annual Silent Auction will open online at 8 am on Monday, November 16th, and will close around 9 pm on Saturday, November 21. We will still have all our silent auction items on display Saturday evening in Rudder Exhibit Hall. We invite you to download the Handbid App (free), or create a free account online. On November 16th, please view our Silent Auction items online - over 200 items that range from Kendra Scott Jewelry, to vacation homes, to signed Aggie paraphernalia. You can bid all week long, and if you are unable to attend the live Silent Auction on Saturday, November 21 at Rudder Exhibit Hall, we will ship you your item if you win. It's easy to participate, and all proceeds benefit worthy causes.

To download the App and create an account, please visit <https://www.handbid.com> and search for "Songfest" on November 16th. We encourage you to have the App downloaded before you attend the auction.

If you have any questions about Songfest, how to purchase tickets, or our Silent Auction through Handbid, please contact me with questions.

On behalf of Chi Omega at Texas A&M, we look forward to your participation in our philanthropy event. Please forward this email to your Aggie Mom's Club members and any other social groups who would be interested in a fantastic Silent Auction!

Gratefully,
